

Archbishop Christopher Prowse and participants of the ACU Graduate Certificate in Education: Leading the New Evangelisation, Canberra, 2017.

FOCUS AREAS

MEMBERS HAVE ACCESS TO:

RENEWING

Through prayer and retreat opportunities:

- Weekly 'Formed in Prayer' Series (personal and staff/group)
- Porta Fidei facilitated retreats
- Encouraging participation in Catholic Church renewal programs

FORMING

Through professional development opportunities:

- Forming Leaders small group series
- Professional Development: ACU Graduate programs and certificates such as the Graduate Certificate in Education (Leading the New Evangelisation) and Signum Fidei (Catholic Life and Participation Program)
- Events: Catholic Leaders Formation Symposium

LEADING

Through networking and leadership opportunities:

- Participation in small groups across the network
- Training for leading CLFN activities and Porta Fidei retreats
- Networking; regular communication (CLFN and CSYMA eNews)

Members can access resources via website!

Catholic Leaders Formation Symposium

Canberra
17th August 2018, 8:30 - 3:30

Visit csymi.com/symposium

The CLFN is a partnership work of CSYMA and ACU La Salle Academy.

The ACU La Salle Academy provides programs and resources for the formation of teachers and leaders for Catholic schools and the other ecclesial organisations with which they partner. Central to its mission are the aspirations of the New Evangelisation.

CSYMA is a network of Catholic Schools across Australia and internationally, focused on supporting Catholic schools becoming centres of evangelisation. CSYMA also includes a post-school youth ministers network and accreditation program.

MEMBERSHIP TYPES

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS $300/year (20 people)

PARISH / OTHER $120/year (10 people)

INDIVIDUALS $30/year

CSYMA Junior and Secondary Membership includes CLFN membership.

FURTHER INFORMATION AND TO REGISTER

Visit csymi.com/about/catholic-leaders-formation-network

Email contact@csyma.com